9.1 Leel Electricals Limited had imported goods in Containers containing compressors for Air conditioners along with accessories, copper coils, aluminum foils, etc. which were lying at ICD, Dadri with 4 Logistics Company. The erstwhile IRP had filed an application before NCLT Allahabad Bench bearing IA No. 128/2020. The Adjudicating Authority had directed the Custom Department at ICD, Dadri to handover the goods to the Liquidator of LEEL Electricals Limited within a period of 15 days from the date of order i.e., 16/10/2020. The Principal Commissioner of Custom had thereafter filed an appeal against the said order issued by the NCLT. Finally, the NCLAT vide order dated 19/09/2022 directed Custom department to give possession of goods to the Liquidator and file claim of the Custom Department in the present Liquidation Matter. A letter from Custom department was received wherein it had agreed to transfer the possession of goods, without payment of custom duty. Thereafter, once the possession in assets lying with ICD Dadri Noida was transferred to the Liquidator, subsequent visit and valuation with respect to the goods lying there was conducted by the Liquidator.

9.2 In view of the SCC Meeting held on 10th February 2023, the Liquidator in consonance with the advice of SCC members agreed to conduct an e-auction for the sale of the assets of the Corporate Debtor, more particularly the assets lying with CMA CGM

Logistics Private Limited at ICD Dadri. Further, the assets were discussed to be sold in two separate blocks i.e., Block A for items quantified in terms of their weight and Block B for items quantified in terms of their number.

9.3 The assets of the Corporate Debtor are being sold on a standalone basis. The sale document covers the terms and conditions for sale of the assets of the Corporate Debtor on a standalone basis:

NOTE: - The above-mentioned amount does not include GST or any other tax and if the same will be applicable, it will be charged as per applicable law over and above the highest bid amount.

9.4 It is clarified that the quantity of assets being sold may fluctuate as it was not possible for the Liquidator and the registered valuers to inspect each and every container of goods lying at ICD Dadri. Hence the physical/actual quantity may differ at the time of movement.

9.5 The quantity of the assets in Block A and B will be based upon the actual weight/numerical quantity as weighed/counted at the time of loading the material and the same will be verified by the Bidder and the Liquidators Team. In view of the same, in such a scenario where the quantity of goods does vary, the amount to be paid by the Successful Auction Purchaser may be re-calculated on per piece/per kg basis (the value of per piece/ per kg on respective materials have been determined from the Valuation reports of the registered valuers) and the Successful Bidder will thereafter be liable to pay that revised amount over the H1 Bid. For any quantity of the assets greater than the average of quantity mentioned in Table No.1 above, the buyer shall be liable to pay for the incremental quantity on a proportionate basis as per the bid price.

For the purpose of the recalculation, the per unit rate in Table 1 titled as “RESERVE PRICE FOR GOODS LYING AT CMA CGM LOGISTICS PRIVATE LIMITED” has to be referred. In case the actual weight/number of assets at the site is higher than weight/number estimated by the registered valuers (as mentioned above) then the amount payable by the successful bidder would be higher than the reserve price by the incremental actual weight less the estimated weight of the scrap, multiplied by the rate, would be added to final bid amount. In case, the bid received is higher than the reserve price then the per kg/per unit rate of the assets will increase in the same proportion, and the weight/number shall be computed on an actual basis. However, in case the actual weight/number is less than the estimate weight as mentioned above, then in such a situation excess amount paid by the bidder shall be refunded back to them within a reasonable period of 30 days.

Illustration/Model Working: -

- Unit Price for copper as decided under liquidation process and approved by SCC is Rs.732/- per Kg. Based upon said unit price, the reserve price for copper was set at Rs.5,89,99,566/- for the total quantity as disclosed by valuers i.e., 80,600.5 Kgs. Similarly, the unit price for aluminum as decided under liquidation process and approved by SCC is Rs.124.5/- per Kg. Based upon unit price, the reserve price for aluminum was set to Rs.22,21,578/- for the total quantity as disclosed by valuers i.e., 17,844 kgs. Summary is as follows:-

Particular	Quantity	Per Unit Price	Reserve Price
Copper	80600.5	732	5,89,99,566
Aluminum	17844	124.5	22,21,578
TOTAL			6,12,21,144

- In case, the H1 Bid submitted by the successful bidder increases by 20% over the reserve price of Rs. 6,12,21,144 and final or highest bid was placed for Rs.7,34,65,372.8, then in a such a case, unit price as per the H1 bid of successful bidder would also increase by 20% as follows: -.

Particular	Quantity	Revised per Unit Price increased by 20%	Highest Bid Price
Copper	80600.5	878.4	7,07,99,479.2
Aluminum	17844	149.4	26,65,893.6
Highest Bid Amount			7,34,65,372.8

- In this reference, we would like to highlight a case where the quantity of copper lying on the site is 82000.5 kgs instead of 80,600 kgs. In such a situation where the actual weight for the copper comes to the tune of 82000.5 kgs (For illustration purpose), then the H1 bidder will be required to pay additional amount of Rs. 12,29,760/- $\{(82,000.5-80,600.5= 1,400) * (878.4)\}$. Similar calculations will be carried out in case lesser quantity of goods are found at the site.
- However, such calculation or assessment will be done on the basis of actual weight/ numeric quantity as weighed/counted at the time of loading the material and the same has to be verified by the bidders/buyers and the Liquidator's Team and after receiving full consideration i.e. highest bid amount as per the terms and condition of the letter of intent. Hence, after receiving full amount the liquidator will refund the excess amount within 30 days in case the total quantity is less the quantity as mentioned under table 1 mentioned above. However, the liquidator reserves the right to hold the movement of the concerned asset in case any additional quantity is found as per the quantity mentioned under table and in such a case Liquidator will have the right to demand additional amount in the proportioned ratio of per quantity on the basis of highest bid value (as illustrated in example 1 and 2 above).”

As already mentioned, the Liquidator or the Stakeholders' Consultation Committee would not be responsible for any variation in the list assets available on the Data Room or separately supplied to the bidders. Any shortage in the material at site at the time of handing over possession would not be considered as a reason for any claim from the Liquidator or SCC and such shortage would also not be used as reason for any claim. However, it is reiterated, in such a scenario where the quantity of goods does vary, the amount to be paid by the Successful Auction Purchaser may be recalculated on per piece/per kg basis (the value of per piece/ per kg on respective materials have been determined from the Valuation reports of the registered valuers) and such recalculated amount is required to be paid by the Successful Bidder. As per illustration mentioned above at page no 29 to 31.

The proposed sale as specified above does not entail transfer of any title, except the title which the Company has on the assets as on date of the transfer or any of its assets as determined by the Liquidator, etc., outstanding as on date or yet to fall due in respect of the relevant asset should be ascertained by the Bidder and would be borne by the Successful Bidder from the date of declaration as Successful Bidder and shall be due and payable immediately as and when intimated by the Liquidator or along with the payment of the balance sale consideration (at the Liquidator's discretion), as per the instructions of the Liquidator but shall in any event be payable prior to issuance of the sale certificate/sale deed/transfer deed by the Liquidator in favor of the Successful Bidder.
