Adhir fumes at 2-seat offer, hits out at TMC

RAVIK BHATTACHARYA Kolkata, January 5

THE PRECARIOUS INDIA alliance in West Bengal suffered another jolt Thursday, with state Congress president Adhir Chowdhury lashing out at TMC chief Mamata Banerjee, saying his party was not dependent on her "mercy". Chowdhury was reacting to reports that the TMC was inclined to offer the Congress only 2 seats in the state as part of the Opposition grouping. The Congress currently holds that precise number from West Bengal, including Chowdhury's own constituency Berhampur and Malda Dakshin, from where Hasem Khan Choudhury is the MP – both of which are the party's traditional strongholds. Sources said the Congress is pushing for 6 seats from the state. Chowdhury said in Berhampore: "Mamata Baner-

We can fight on our own strength.""If the alliance fails, who would be the happiest person in India? Narendra Modi. What Mamata Banerjee is doing is serving his cause. She is trying to help him," Chowdhury said.

The seats the Congress is hoping to get fall in the Malda, Murshidabad, Uttar Dinajpur and Darjeeling districts.

Earlier, on January 1 too, Chowdhury had accused Mamata of being "against INDIA" in Bengal and "ruining" its prospects in the state. "Her party says it is interested in an alliance nationally, but not in Bengal. It is clear the Chief Minister does not want an alliance here," Chowdhury had said. He seemed to be referring to Mamata's statement at a public meeting in North 24 Parganas recently. "INDIA will be there and fight across the country, but in Bengal it will be the Trinamool Congress which will fight against the BJP," she had said. The sparring is not likely to help INDIA seat understanding in Bengal, which was anyway expected to be tough given the bitter rivalry between the TMC and Congress-Left in the state. State Congress sources said while they would take the lead of the high command in Delhi on the issue, they hoped the leadership would bear in mind their reservations.

MEA urged to extradite two Dubaibased betting kingpins MAHENDER SINGH

MANRAL

New Delhi, January 5

THE ENFORCEMENT DIREC-TORATE (ED) has sent several documents to the Ministry of External Affairs to initiate extradition proceedings against two Dubai-based kingpins — Ravi Uppal and Sourabh Chandrakar — main promoters of the Mahadev online betting app.

The move comes days after a fresh charge sheet was filed before a special court in Raipur against their five associates by the agency which is investigating alleged money laundering in the online gambling case.

In September, the ED had initiated the process of issuing a Red Corner Notice (RCN) against Chandrakar, 28, and Uppal, 43, both of whom hail from Bhilai in Chhattisgarh.

"First, Uppal was detained in Dubai by the immigration department on the basis of an RCN issued by the Interpol at the behest of the ED, and later his associate Chandrakar was also detained. Since, both have a citizenship of Vanuatu, an island country in the Pacific Ocean, they would be extradited," the sources said.

A team was sent to Dubai to complete legal documentation work and initiate extradition proceedings. "Chandrakar and Uppal have been staying in Dubai for nearly two years.

Uppal is said to be an engineering graduate and they operate from Dubai and keep 80% of the profits. The duo is suspected to have made ₹5,000 crore, but things will clear after they are extradited," the source said.

"Alleged cash courier Aseem Das, police constable Bheem Singh Yadav, Shubham Soni, a prominent executive linked to the app, were among the five named in the complaint," the sources said.

"We have also sent the fresh prosecution complaint to the MEA, asking it to share with the concerned authorities in Dubai to get them extradited. The special PMLA court may take cognisance of the charge sheet on January 10," an official said.

SC notice to UP on pleas against halal-certified products ban

Devotees take part in a procession in Ahmedabad on Friday as they transport a flag pole to be put up at Ayodhya's

Ram Temple.

BIG TEMPLE RUN

THE SUPREME COURT Friday issued a notice to the Uttar Pradesh government on two separate pleas challenging the Constitutional validity of the UP government's notification "prohibiting the manufacturing, storage, sale, and distribution of food products with Halal certification within the State of Uttar Pradesh, except for items produced for export".

One of the petitioners —

Halal India Pvt Ltd, which claimed to be an "internationally recognised halal certification provider" — called the notification "an attack on the followers of Islam religion...". Another petitioneris Jamiat Ulama-e-Maharashtra. A bench of Justices B R Gavai and Sandeep Mehta initially said that the high court could also consider the issue but the petitioners argued that the notification issued by the Office of the Commissioner, Food Safety and Drug Administration, UP, on November 18, 2023, has pan-India ramifications and would impact inter-state commerce. They contended that a similar position has not been taken for practices of other religions or denominations. They submitted it will have a significant impact on public health, and on religious practices, affecting the freedom of religion. The plea by Halal India Pvt Ltd, filed through advocate Ejaz Maqbool, submitted that the "widespread impact of the Impugned notification and the ban... has instilled fear in the populace all across India".

It also added that "pertinently, impugned notification and FIR have had nationwide repercussions that have particularly affected a certain religious minority i.e., the Islamic community and have created apprehension that the practice initiated by the Respondent State may be replicated by other states, intensifying the pervasive fear. This apprehension is substantiated by instances wherein leaders of other States have advocated for a similar ban".

Krishna Janmabhoomi case: SC rejects plea for mosque removal in Mathura

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE New Delhi, January 5

The Supreme Court on Friday refused to entertain an appeal against the Allahabad High Court order dismissing a PIL that sought the removal of Shahi Idgah mosque in Mathura and recognition of the site as the Krishna Janmabhoomi.

A bench of Justices Sanjiv Khanna and Dipankar Datta told the petitioner, Advocate Mahek Maheswari, that several other suits were pending on the matter, and there was no need to multiply the litigation. The bench, however, clarified that the dismissal would not prevent the petitioner from filing a plea challenging the vires of any enactment.

"We are not inclined to interfere with the impugned judgment, and hence, the Special Leave Petition is dismissed. We clarify that the dismissal of the SLP nowhere comments on the right of

of any enactment or prevents or bars any party from challenging the vires of any enactment," said the court.

Maheswari told the bench

parties to challenge the vires

that the High Court had dismissed his petition, saying other suits were also pending, but he did not have any information about them.

The bench, meanwhile, pointed out that the High Court had rejected his plea as it was filed as a PIL.

"File it otherwise. We will see," said the court.

Last year, the Allahabad High Court had transferred all pending suits on the Krishna Janmabhoomi issue to itself and allowed the appointment of a commissioner to inspect the mosque complex.

On December 25 last year, the Supreme Court refused to stay the High Court order.

Maheshwari's PIL also challenged the constitutionality of the provisions of the Places of Worship Act, 1991.
